PRESS ADVISORY

Eight municipal, one municipal democratic political action committee, and two school board candidates must pay fines and fees totaling approximately $31,054.58 for violating the Campaign Contributions and Expenditures Reporting Act, the New Jersey Election Law Enforcement Commission (ELEC) announced today.

These enforcement actions, known as final decisions, were approved by the Commission at its December 18, 2018 meeting. In addition, ELEC on December 26, 2018 issued five complaints against candidates for the 2015 school board election for failing to report and late reporting of contribution and expenditure information. They, too, could face substantial fines.

To search for individual complaints and final decisions, go to this link: <http://www.elec.state.nj.us/ELECRReport/SearchComplaintsDecisions.aspx> and enter name of candidate or committee, or pick date released.
